Rising Fourth Graders

Dear Harrison School District Parents, Guardians, and Students,

Reading can take us to some interesting places. We can use our imaginations to travel the universe and discover so many awesome things along the way. A Universe of Stories is the Collaborative Summer Library Program theme this year. It is hopeful that everyone will have the opportunity to visit the library to read wonderful books that celebrate this national, yet, "out-of-this-world" adventure!

Students are required to read and complete projects about what they have read. Rising fourth and fifth graders are required to complete at least two projects: one for a fiction book and one for nonfiction. An additional letter is included that provides more details and a suggested grade level reading list is also provided.

The Summer Reading Journal for Barnes & Noble is included. Additional books read over the summer can be listed and be taken to the closest store location to be redeemed for a free book. Please read the form for more details.

All reading assignments must be completed and turned in to each assigned classroom teacher by Friday, September 6, 2019 for a grade. Assistance and support from our parents and guardians is greatly appreciated. The parent involvement form is also attached and should be filled out by a parent or guardian.

It is hopeful that all students will enjoy reading in space and come back in September ready to share their intergalactic adventures with their classmates and teachers!

Sincerely,

2019 Summer Reading Project

Dear Student,

Welcome to 4th grade! Summer is a great time to relax and read a few good books.

Attached is the summer reading project you will complete before Friday, September 6, 2019. You are able to make choices when it comes to your summer activity. If you find you are not enjoying a book or activity, try another one!

Below is a list of books for you to choose from. (Every student is required to read 1 book (Fiction or Nonfiction) and complete the Tic-Tac-Toe project. You will find all the activities, rubrics, and all directions for this project in this packet.

This project will count as your 1st grade for English Language Arts!

Have fun and be creative! See you in September!

[Parents, feel free to read and discuss the books along with your child. When it comes to completing the projects, however, please be a guide for your child, rather than a partner in the project. Thank you for your continued cooperation!]

4th Grade Book List

Fiction	(All books descriptions are copied/adapted from Scholastic.com)
No Talking By: Andrew Clements 	The noisy fifth grade boys of Laketon Elementary School challenge the equally loud fifth grade girls to a "no talking" contest. Andrew Clements, The New York Times-bestselling author, portrays a battle of wills between some spunky kids and a creative teacher who sees how the kids' experiment can provide a unique lesson in communication.
Fantastic Mr. Fox By: Roald Dahl 	Fantastic Mr. Fox keeps his family one step ahead of the three pursuant, obsessed farmers. Mr. Fox would never surrender. When they try to dig him out, he digs faster; when they lay siege to his den, he tunnels to where the farmers least expect him: their own larders! In the end, Mr. Fox not only survives, but also helps the whole community of burrowing creatures live happily ever after.
I Survived the American Revolution, 1776 By: Lauren Tarshis 	The battlefield was soaked in blood. Screams of injured soldiers rang through the air. Eleven-year-old Nathaniel Knox knelt behind a rock, his gun clutched in his shaking hands. Nate had been heading to New York City to find his father. But now he was trapped in a terrible gunfight between American and British troops. This Revolutionary War had started as a thrilling fight for freedom. The 13 American colonies were breaking apart from England, away from King George III. The colonies would band together to become a brand-new country: the United States of America!
The Chocolate Touch By: Patrick Skene Catling 	If he could, John Midas would eat nothing but chocolate all the time, and he'd never share it with anyone. Then one day, John finds a strange coin on the sidewalk and uses it to buy a box of chocolate at a mysterious new candy store. Suddenly, everything John's lips touch turns to chocolate! Chocolate toothpaste and chocolate water fountains are great, but things get complicated when John can't play the trumpet or bob for apples. Worst of all, he forgets and kisses his mother! This funny be-careful-what-you-wish-for story has been delighting kids everywhere since it was first published in 1952.

4th Grade Book List

Nonfiction	(All books descriptions are copied/adapted from Scholastic.com)
Who Was Roald Dahl? By: Stephen Marchesi , Nancy Harrison , True Kelley 	Roald Dahl is one of the most famous children's book authors ever. Now in this Who Was...? Biography, children will learn of his real-life adventures. A flying ace for the British Air Force, he was married to an Academy Award-winning actress. He also wrote books and screenplays for adults. Entertaining and readable, this biography has 80 black-and-white illustrations. Kids already know his classic books; now they'll learn about the man behind Charlie and the Chocolate Factory, Matilda, and James and the Giant Peach.
What Was the Holocaust? By: Gail Herman 	The Holocaust was a genocide on a scale never before seen, with as many as twelve million people killed in Nazi death camps—six million of them Jews. Gail Herman traces the rise of Hitler and the Nazis, whose rabid anti-Semitism led first to humiliating anti-Jewish laws, then to ghettos all over Eastern Europe, and ultimately to the Final Solution. She presents just enough information for an elementary-school audience in a readable, well researched book that covers one of the most horrible times in history. This entry in the New York Times best-selling series contains eighty carefully chosen illustrations and sixteen pages of black and white photographs suitable for young readers.
Owen & Mzee The True Story of Friendship By: Isabella Hatkoff, 	The inspiring true story of two great friends, a baby hippo named Owen and a 130-yr-old giant tortoise named Mzee (Mm-ZAY). When Owen was stranded after the Dec 2004 tsunami, villagers in Kenya worked tirelessly to rescue him. Then, to everyone's amazement, the orphan hippo and the elderly tortoise adopted each other. Now they are inseparable, swimming, eating, and playing together. Adorable photos emailed from friend to friend quickly made them worldwide celebrities. Here is a joyous reminder that in times of trouble, friendship is stronger than the differences that too often pull us apart. Oppenheim Toy Portfolio Platinum Book Award New York Times bestseller ALA Notable Children's Book "Remarkable' seems too tame a word for this memorable book about a friendship between two wild creatures." — Publishers Weekly
Empire State Building When New York Reached for the Skies By: Alan Witschonke 	The illustrated true story of the world's most famous skyscraper. In 1929 the race was on to construct the tallest building in the world. Less than two years later, the race was won and the age of skyscrapers had its exclamation point. In Empire State Building, author Elizabeth Mann tells the story of an American icon. From start to finishing touches, she tracks the wonders of architecture, engineering, and construction that went into its creation. Her fascinating profiles of the millionaires and laborers capture the essence of the individuals who dreamed of and built this architectural marvel.
